

Materials list for MENTORING WITH KATHLEEN CONOVER

Three days to devote to your artwork is a true gift to yourself. And you deserve it!

Let's make the most of this precious time together and start by having all the materials necessary to take the next step in your journey. When in doubt, bring it. Thinking "Here goes nothing" could be the start of everything! So, be prepared.

MUST-HAVE:

- A variety of paintings to work on: close-to-done, good start, what's missing?, total bomb, etc.
- Digital images or photos of a few successful previous works to share with me.
- Paints (or collage) and brushes that you normally use to do your art work.
- Reference materials: of imagery if you normally paint with imagery.
Of course, total non-objective is great!
- Sketches, thoughts for themes or concepts to explore.
- Misc.: sketchbook, pencils, scissors, spray bottle, water container...
ALL the things you normally use working in your studio.

Optional: Kathleen Conover's Essential Gesso Juice Kit ($15.99). New, in Cheap Joe's 2019 catalog, pg. 90. This is for making new starts from old watercolor paintings and is the trick to many of my "prize winners".

DON'T FORGET - your enthusiasm and a sense of adventure.

Looking forward to painting with you! Kathleen Conover
